

BROAD HOMEOWNERS POLICY

The policy consists of these wordings, the Certificate of Property Insurance which contains information that is unique to your insurance policy and other forms that may need to be attached to complete your package coverage. Together, these represent the legal contract of indemnity that exists between you and us. This policy contains various exclusions and limitations which eliminate or restrict coverage. Please read it carefully.

INSURING AGREEMENT

We provide the insurance described in this policy in return for payment of the premium and subject to the terms and conditions set out.

All amounts of insurance, premiums and other amounts as expressed in this policy are in Canadian currency.

The Certificate of Property Insurance summarizes the Insurance coverage you have selected and the premiums, limits, amounts and deductibles that apply to them. Among other things, the Certificate of Property Insurance also identifies the policyholder, the policy term and any Endorsements that apply to your Insurance Coverage.

Only losses that occur within the policy term shown on the Certificate of Property Insurance will be covered under this policy. There will be no coverage for any loss that occurred or was in progress prior to the policy period inception date or after the policy period expiry date shown on the Certificate of Property Insurance.

Insurance cannot be a source of profit. It is only designed to indemnify you against actual losses incurred by you or for which you are liable.

If during the term of this policy we change the insurance of the kind provided by this policy to provide more coverage at no additional cost, you will automatically benefit from that change at no increase in premium.

This form consists of three Sections:

We are responsible only for the amount by which the loss or damage covered by this policy of insurance exceeds the amount of the deductible shown on the Certificate of Property Insurance in any one occurrence. If your claim exceeds $25,000, and the applicable deductible amount on the Certificate of Property Insurance is $1,000 or less, the deductible will not apply to your claim.

You may choose payment on the basis of actual cash value initially. If you later decide to replace any destroyed or stolen property you may make an additional claim for the difference between the actual cash value and replacement cost basis within 180 days after the date of loss.

Cancellation Provision following a Declaration of Emergency

The effective date of the termination of this policy by the Insurer, or the normal expiration of the term of this policy, is extended as follows when an "emergency" is declared by a Canadian public authority designated by statute for the purpose of issuing such an order. In no event shall the total term of this extension exceed 90 days. The "emergency" must have a direct effect or impact on an Insured or insured property located in the declared emergency area.

  - a. 30 days; or
  - b. the number of days equal to the total time the "emergency" order was in effect.

Misrepresentation

1. If a person applying for insurance falsely describes the property to the prejudice of the Insurer, or misrepresents or fraudulently omits to communicate any circumstance that is material to be made known to the insurer in order to enable it to judge of the risk to be undertaken, the contract is void as to any property in relation to which the misrepresentation or omission is material.

Property of Others

2. Unless otherwise specifically stated in the contract, the Insurer is not liable for loss or damage to property owned by any person other than the Insured, unless the interest of the Insured therein is stated in the contract.

Material Change

4. Any change material to the risk and within the control and knowledge of the Insured avoids the contract as to the part affected thereby, unless the change is promptly notified in writing to the Insurer or its local agent, and the Insurer when so notified may return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid and cancel the contract, or may notify the Insured in writing that, if the Insured desires the contract to continue in force, the Insured must, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice, pay to the Insurer an additional premium, and in default of such a payment the contract is no longer in force and the Insurer shall return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid.

Termination

5. (1) This contract may be terminated:
  - (a) by the Insurer giving to the Insured fifteen days' notice of termination by registered mail or five days' written notice of termination personally delivered;

- (2) Where this contract is terminated by the Insurer:
  - (a) the Insurer shall refund the excess of premium actually paid by the insured over the proportionate premium for the expired time, but in no event, shall the proportionate premium for the expired time be deemed to be less than any minimum retained premium specified; and
  - (b) the refund shall accompany the notice unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to amount, in which case the refund shall be made as soon as practicable.
- (3) Where this contract is terminated by the Insured, the Insurer shall refund as soon as practicable the excess of the premium actually paid by the Insured over the short rate premium for the expired time, but in no event shall the short rate premium for the expired time be deemed to be less than any minimum retained premium specified.
- (4) The refund may be made by money, postal or express company money order or cheque payable at par.

Who May Give Notice and Proof

8. Notice of loss may be given and proof of loss may be made by the agent of the Insured named in the contract in case of absence or inability of the Insured to give the notice or make the proof, and absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for, or in the like case, or if the Insured refuses to do so, by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

Appraisal

11. In the event of disagreement as to the value of the property insured, the property saved or the amount of the loss, those questions shall be determined by appraisal as provided under The Insurance Act before there can be any recovery under this contract whether the right to recover on the contract is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions. There shall be no right to an appraisal until a specific demand therefore is made in writing and until after proof of loss has been delivered.
